Church

Volume 68 No. 2

March 2025

As a child sitting among the faithful Presbyterians in the Pittsburgh area, I seldom heard anything about those Catholics who worshiped just around the corner, many of whom lived down the street. Then, from 1962 to 1965, Pope John XXIII convened the Second Vatican Council to modernize the Church in Rome, and opened avenues of cooperation and learning with Protestants. Ancient devotional practices, such as Ash Wednesday and Lent were welcomed into the Protestant churches. In turn, the Roman Catholics “discovered” the value of good preaching and lay ministries. The practice of a Lenten discipline, then, is a relatively new addition to our Presbyterian devotional life, in part because our Presbyterian spiritual ancestors stressed daily devotional practices of reading Scripture, personal prayer, grace before each meal and giving 10% of your income to the church work (the tithe).

A little history lesson: the season of Lent invites us to become “peregrini”, which is the Latin root for “pilgrim”. We are invited to walk through each day as wanderers (peregrini or pilgrims) accompanied Christ. There is a centuries old tradition of Celtic peregrini from the British Isles who travelled across Europe teaching Scripture, leading worship, establishing monasteries and cultivating the arts. The Book of Kells (image shown) is a sample of their skill and devotion:

The invitation to a Lenten pilgrimage asks us to change out familiar routines so that we might discover something new. On Sunday, March 2, and for each Sunday until Holy Week, items for devotional use will be found on a table in the Narthex for you to consider adopting for your own use.

Those who include Ash Wednesday in their worship life won’t be too surprised by the display of devotional items. That service, on March 5, marks the start of the 40 days of Lent, features a variety of ways to experience worship. Consider adding the 7:00pm service to your calendar today.

This is my attempt to tease your imagination; I will have more to say about devotional habits in the context of modernity from the pulpit in the weeks ahead. Every pilgrimage with Christ asks us to walk in the mystery of His humble death and risen power, and to understand that there are miraculous moments possible at any time in every day. We are never alone; we journey through life in the presence of the Pilgrim of our Faith, and with one another. Amen!

Your interim minister,
Pastor David

Claymont Elementary School Outreach

Trinity supports Claymont Elementary School in many ways. This time of year we make gift bags for everyone on the staff of this 900-student school. On a recent Sunday, volunteers assembled and delivered 158 gift bags, along with three $50 Target gift cards for a special drawing. Funding for this project was provided by the Deacon's Fund and proceeds from the Winter Bazaar.

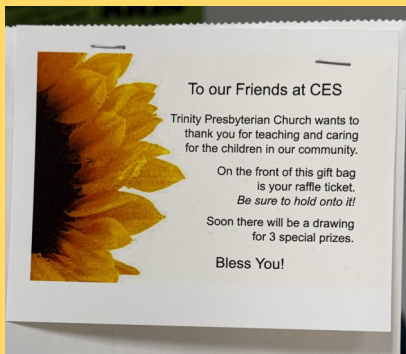

Many thanks to the team who shopped for, stuffed, and delivered the bags: Wendy Barba, Leslie and Steve Connor, Joe Euculano, Julie, Emma, and Meghan Monaghan, Debbie Schrass, and Maggie Vitsorek. Trinity's own John Vitsorek was the recipient of one of the bags now that he works at CES!

Thank you emails included messages like:

"We truly love and appreciate you and everything you guys do at Trinity."

"I just wanted to thank you so much for your thoughtful goodies and kind words that you gave out to our staff this week. It was an unexpected and lovely surprise."

"I wanted to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude for the time and effort you dedicated to blessing the Claymont family with the gift bags."

Sympathy and Prayers are with

The family of longtime member Flo MacFarlane who passed away on Saturday, February 8 at Christiana Hospital. Please keep in your prayers Flo's family, daughter Kim Robbins, son Rad MacFarlane, granddaughters Lindsay O'Brien and Courtney Kledaras and their families.

Dear Trinity

I am overwhelmed with gratitude towards my Trinity family. Words cannot express my appreciation for all of the cards and word of comfort I've received since Mom's passing

My siblings were surprised by the turnout at her service, and we know Mom was smiling. She always said that one sad thing about dying when you're old is so few people are left to attend your funeral. Boy was she wrong.

There are way too many folks to name individually, but I am forever grateful to those who assisted during Mom's service and luncheon.

Love,
Sue Crump

Dear Trinity

Thank you for your kind and thoughtful messages of condolence following Flo's passing.

Your uplifting words brought us comfort and reminded us that we are not alone in our grief. We are truly grateful and blessed to be part of such a loving church family.

With heartfelt gratitude,
The MacFarlane Clan

Deacons Sunday Fellowship Hour
